

Dawn Bonder

Senior Policy Advisor, Office of Governor Theodore R. Kulongoski, State of Oregon

Dawn Bonder currently serves as Senior Policy Advisor to Oregon Governor Ted Kulongoski. Her primary issue areas are health information technology, early childhood education and development and human services.

Prior to joining the Governor's Office, Ms. Bonder was the State Coordinator for Health Information Technology and Project Director for the Health Information Security and Privacy Collaboration (HISPC). Before joining the state, she served as policy director for the Oregon Business Association and practiced corporate law with the firm Breed, Abbot and Morgan in New York. Ms. Bonder holds a JD from New York University School of Law and a BS in Business Administration from Boston University.