

Panelist:

Rob Doll

Vice President, Business Development, PassportMD

Mr. Doll has over 15 years of professional and consumer healthcare sales and marketing experience within a multitude of medical fields from biotechnology to pathology services and dialysis. He has been successful in leading large established organizations as well as startup ventures.

Mr. Doll has held senior positions in publicly held companies, such as AmeriPath, Gambro, and Cryo-Cell, where he held leading roles in strategic partnership development and acquisition integration as well as sales growth. His experience includes multiple disciplines from marketing, sales and client support, to new product and corporate partnership development.

Mr. Doll holds a bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Tampa.